We are ASP

Advanced Sterilization Products (ASP) is a leader in infection prevention – helping facilities prevent healthcare-associated infections (HAIs) and in creating the safest possible environments for patients and their families, healthcare workers, providers, and communities.

Every day, millions of people around the world visit a healthcare facility. It may be a mother giving birth, a grandfather receiving routine treatment, or a parent visiting a sick child. What they all have in common is a desire to leave the hospital as healthy or healthier than when they arrived. But sadly, HAIs are increasing around the world.

Welcome to ASP -- a company dedicated to designing and delivering innovative infection prevention technologies to improve patient care.

Our Mission: To protect patients during their most critical moments.

The Fortive Advantage
